CGHS beneficiaries in Delhi

1262. SHRI MAHENDRA MOHAN: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the number of CGHS beneficiaries registered with each dispensary in Delhi and what is the proportion of serving employees and pensioners among them, dispensary-wise;

(b) the doctor patient ratio in the case of CGHS beneficiaries in Delhi with reference to medical officers and specialists, discipline-wise; super-specialists, discipline-wise; and

(c) the steps Government propose to make available adequate medical facilities to these beneficiaries?

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI PANABAKA LAKSHMI): (a) A Statement is attached. (See below).

(b) Staff Inspection Unit, Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, has fixed the following norms for various posts for CGHS dispensaries:

(1) Doctor:	One doctor for 75 patients;
(2) Pharmacist:	180 patients;
(3) Staff Nurse:	1 for each dispensary on functional basis;
(4) Dresser/Female Attendant/ Nursing Orderly/Peon:	Total of 5 Group D employees for each Dispensary;
(5) Sweeper:	1 for each dispensary;
(6) Chowkidar:	1 for each dispensary ;
(7) Clerk:	1 for 150 patients ;
(8) Lab. Technician/Lab. Assistant/ Lab. Attendant:	One each for 35 patients;

Specialists and super-specialists are not posted in CGHS dispensaries. No norms have, therefore, been fixed for specialists and super-specialists in CGHS dispensaries.

(c) Improvement in functioning of CGHS is a continuous process and simplification of its procedure to make it more user friendly. Empanelment of private hospitals and diagnostic centres, to complement the facilities available to the beneficiaries under CGHS is a major step aimed at providing medical facilities round the clock. Empanelment of hospitals and diagnostic centres is a continuous process and more private hospitals and diagnostic centres can come into the empanelled category at any point of time. Computerisation of CGHS in a phased manner has been taken up, setting up of Advisory/Grievance redressal Committee at the dispensary level and also a pilot project has already been initiated to out-source the settlement of MRC claims through Third Party Administrators, a process has also been initiated to prepare a CGHS Manual for information of the beneficiaries. It is the constant endeavour of the Government to provide the best facilities to the beneficiaries in terms of highly trained technical manpower, latest machinery and equipment etc.
